COUNCIL TAX DISCOUNT / EXEMPTION APPLICATION LONG TERM PATIENTS IN HOSPITALS OR HOMES

The Council Tax regulations provide for a discount to be granted if there are less than two adult residents in a dwelling. In counting the number of adults any person who is a long-term patient in a hospital, nursing home or residential care home may be disregarded. In addition to this, any property left unoccupied by a taxpayer whose main residence is as above may also be exempt from any charge thereafter. If a discount or exemption is to be claimed the applicant should complete the form below in BLOCK CAPITALS and return it as soon as possible.
