Healthy Roots Quality Mark	Promoting Health and Wellbeing in Education Settings	South Glos Council Public Health and Wellbeing	The Healthy Roots Quality Mark represents a form of baseline assessment, allowing education settings to evidence the foundation they have built for the promotion of staff and pupil health and wellbeing. The Quality Mark is undertaken via completion of an online assessment tool	The Online Assessment tool can be accessed here

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

Settings wishing to use Awards or Quality Marks that DO NOT appear on this menu as part of the requirements for achieving either the Beacon Setting status or Beacon+ Exemplar Setting status, are very welcome to send any evidence of Award / Quality Mark completion to healthpromotionineducation@southglos.gov.uk. The Health Promotion in Education Settings Quality Assurance Panel will assess the extent to which your Award or Quality Mark provides sufficient evidence of having a 'health promoting' focus. Where it does, your Award / Quality Mark will be accepted towards the completion of the aforementioned award stages
